

Avoid
the fine.

Don't idle.
Keep your paycheck from vanishing into thin air.

Turning the engine off is one of the easiest steps for drivers to take to improve air quality. This simple act will help drivers and companies avoid costly fines, save money and curb fuel use.

For more information, visit TurnYourEngineOff.org.

